

ALAENA

Within this sanctuary of serenity, two family legacies intertwine, bound by a shared devotion to excellence and the art of passing knowledge through generations.

At the crossroads of dermatology and natural science, Alaena promotes a living cosmetology: a unique expertise that combines the effectiveness of natural active ingredients with biotechnological innovation to revive the vitality of skin cells. Founded by a dermatologist and her daughters, its certified organic formulas are designed to meet the needs of all skin types, even the most sensitive.

This vision aligns with that of the Pinelli family, founders of La Villa Calvi, a refined haven perched on the heights of Calvi, where every detail is thoughtfully orchestrated as a complete experience. Here, each gesture becomes a precise, expert, and enveloping ritual, guided by a profound sense of care and harmony, in the heart of authentic Corsica. A true haven of peace, inviting you into a timeless moment of well-being.
